Major General Alvin R. Fitch
Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence
Department of the Army
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Fitch:

I would like to add a personal word of congratulations as you assume your new responsibilities as Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence, Department of the Army. It is particularly gratifying to me that you will be able to bring to this position a broad range of experience in military affairs and intelligence, which should enable you to make an especially important contribution to the efforts of the entire intelligence community.

I am looking forward to our further association, both in connection with activities of the United States Intelligence Board and in other dealings between our respective agencies. Again, my best wishes for the highest degree of success and satisfaction in your new assignment.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
